VOL. XII NO. 222. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA. SATURDAY, APRIL 20, 1912 (One Cent)

ASKS BIDS FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENT BUILDING

Treasury Department Seeks Proposals for Charleroi Work

TIME LIMIT IS MAY 31

To be Two Stories High with Basement—Face of Stone—Must be Fireproof

Elsewhere in this issue of the Mail appears an advertisement from the Treasury Department at Washington, D. C. asking for bids for the construction of the Public Federal building to be constructed in Charleroi. As the time limit for receiving bids is given as May 31, it is believed that this year will witness actual work on the structure at the corner of seventh street and Fallowfield avenue.

According to the supervising architect of the treasury, James Knox Taylor, the building will occupy approximately 4,156 square feet of ground area. The bids must be for the construction of the building complete, which will include plumbing, piping, heating apparatus, electric conduits and wiring and lighting fixtures.

The building is to be two stories in height and is to have a finished basement. It is to be stone-faced, and is to have a slate roof. According to the specifications the whole structure, with the exception of the roof will have to be fireproof.

Inasmuch as the government owns practically six lots at the corner of seventh street and Fallowfield avenue, or a total of about 12,000 or 13,000 square feet, and the building is to occupy only 4,156 square feet ground area there will be a large space around the structure for lawn. The drawings and specifications may be obtained by contractors from the custodian of the site or at his office at the discretion of the supervising architect.

ADVOCATE PLAN OF LIMITING EXPENSES

Republicans Propose Reform to Do Away With

Certain Alleged Corrupt Expenditures of Candidates

Since the primary election one of the reforms advocated by Republicans is that of limiting the expenditure of candidates. This measure meets with the general approval of allelements—irrespective of affiliation with either the Taft or the Roosevelt contingents. The idea is to abolish the privilege of employing watchers at the polls and the expenditure of money for the transportation of voters as under these provisions much of the corrupt expenditure is made. In the dissemination of information as permitted under the present law is a loophole for unlimited expenditures, and it is believed that this should be restricted to specified uses. Another source of political evil is the efforts of existing office holders to elect their successors, and some regulation to prevent this and leave the choice to the people without undue influence is also desired.

All of the present board of county officials have virtually expressed themselves in favor of these reforms in some form or other, and it is expected that some effort will be made to exert an influence in the direction of bringing about the desired changes.

SECOND RECEPTION BRILLIANT EVENT

Students and Faculty of Charleroi High School Entertain at School Hall—Mock Commencement a Feature

Ninth street school building and School Hall presented a gay scene Friday evening on the occasion of the second annual reception of the Charleroi High School. Combining their efforts students and members of the faculty royally entertained the five hundred and some persons. It was a pleasing break in the monotony of school life. The spirit of the sentiment well put in an old proverb "of making books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh" seemed to prevail.

The balcony and hall interior of the building was transformed into a bower of beauty. Red and black the Charleroi High School colors reigned supreme in the decorations. Attracting first attention, white streamers were hung over the first steps leading from the Fallowfield entrance. Catching the eye beyond, around the banister railing of the balcony were pennants of various descriptions, representing seemingly myriads of schools and colleges suspended against a background of white. Wrapped about the railing leading up the steps were ribbons of red and black. On the second floor were huge pennants and streamers, the red and black predominating. Classes of High School each had their pennants in class colors.

At the top of the first flight of stairs was the receiving line, consisting of the members of the faculty and two or three High School students. At the eastern end of the building on the second floor was the "refreshment counter." Presided over by a bevy of bewitching young women this proved a center of attraction. Delicious punch and lunch cakes were freely dispensed.

As the chief feature of the reception "refreshment counter" was about the only decoration, however, a program was rendered. The High School orchestra had a featuring part. Under direction of Prof. L. T. Daniel this party of young musicians did exceedingly creditable work in the rendition of several numbers. Dr. F. C. Stahlman of the board of education spoke briefly. He said the school board was particularly proud of the High School. "We are students too," he said speaking of the board members. He presented a paper showing the value of a High School education. Misses May and Ethel Barth rendered brilliantly a piano duet. Miss Edith Crill, a High School student sang a solo with pleasing effect. Interspersing were two chorus songs which were sung under direction of Prof. Daniel.

The playlet, "Mock Commencement," a piece full of humor and rich in ludicrous situations was given. Eight persons received their diplomas. On the stage with them were seated the members of the mock faculty attired in a variety of fantastic costumes. The class motto, "Me for a tion on the stage. The program was as follows for this commencement: Salutatory.....Keith Campbell Essay on Pies.....Bessie Richey Oration, "The Autobiography of a Microbe".....Paul Terzinsky Essay, "Weddings".....Isabel Dorhitz Song, "In the Days I Went to School".....Curtis Collins Oration, "Life".....Marie Whitehead Essay, "Hair, Hate and Clothes".....Sadie Henshe Class Poem.....Hazel Williamson Presentation of diplomas, John Hugus, President of Board.

The program closed with the rendition of "A Spring Song" by the school. Following this a brief parting reception was held.

James, Walter Urban, Mark Wheeler, Harry Ray, Frank G. Taylor, Earl W. Taylor, Edward Miller, and Harold Crill.

Bell Telephone Company Installing Improved Exchange

NO MORE BELL RINGING

Subscribers May Get Central Without Having to First Whirl Crank

Previously at midnight tonight the new common battery system upon which the Bell Telephone Company has been working for sometime, will be cut in. This means that tomorrow morning local subscribers to call central will not have to use their time like piston rods turning a crank, but with the one performance of lifting the receiver off the hook will be enabled to summon the operator. Putting in the call is a matter of fact after performance with which everybody is familiar.

For the present the telephone boxes now in the offices and homes of the various subscribers will have to be used, but the company will remove them and install light new devices where there isn't a crank in sight as soon as possible. The one thing to remember tomorrow and hereafter until this is accomplished in calling is to not whirl the crank.

Another change has been made that will be welcomed by local subscribers. That is to get calls between Monticahela and Brownsville which includes the Charleroi district "long distance" does not have to be called. The purpose in doing away with this is to remove what to the average subscriber has seemed an added burden to him and an unnecessary bit of system.

HAS PICTURES OF THE TITANIC

Manager R. S. Coyle, of the Coyle Theatre, telephoned "the Mail" from Pittsburg today that he has been successful in securing a moving picture film of the ill-fated ocean liner Titanic, which was wrecked Monday morning off the Newfoundland Banks with such terrible loss of life. This film will be exhibited Monday at the Coyle Theatre and it will be the second release since its arrival. It is being shown today in Pittsburg, and Monday it will come to Charleroi.

The film shows the Titanic at Southampton, just previous to her departure on her ill-fated voyage. Capt. Smith the gallant commander who went down with his ship, is shown as well as the three decks, which were a part of the luxurious appointments of the liner. The film of course does not show any details of the wreck. It is a good picture of the ill-fated liner, and while not so extensive in detail, gives a graphic impression of the principal in one of the greatest tragedies of the deep.

CO-OPERATION.

It is an old saying that the devil must sometimes be fought with his own weapons, and the way for the plain people to offset the high prices which trusts and combinations impose upon them is to go into the trust business themselves. This can be done through the medium of co-operation.
That co-operative buying and selling can be successfully carried out is evidenced by the marked success that has attended the conduct of the local association, a general summary of which is given in another column.
The Rochdale store plan which is now safe-guarded by State laws, is as safe as the banking system of the State.

This system of co-operation can be carried out in the conduct of a curb market with the same beneficial results without the expenditure of a single dollar for capital stock. All that is necessary is for the people to contribute patronage and effort.
A co-operation of this by all the people of the town will work wonders in the course of two or three years. If the farmers are assured of this cooperation they will have an incentive to make extra efforts to supply the demands. It is up to the people now to help themselves.

MONEY MUST GO.

The movement to eliminate the excessive expenditure of money by candidates for county and other public offices is one that meets the approval of all who are interested in the conduct of clean elections. While our present corrupt practices law seeks in a measure to safeguard this
open to evade the restrictions the law would impose. As conditions now are, candidates seeking the nomination of county offices in particular are put to the extremity of spending more money frequently than the office pays as salary.

That practically all of the present county officials are in favor of this reform should constitute a sentiment that will be a factor in effecting the necessary changes to correct the evils possible under the present law. So long as the bars are down some candidates will start out to make lavish expenditures, which virtually have to be followed by others in order to stand an equal chance in the contest.

The result is that the contest of-times is decided in favor of the candidate who has the longest purse.
This is a pernicious condition and the sooner the evil is corrected the better will conditions be all around.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Most anybody can get votes if he has the nerve to run.

It is about time they were getting the steam roller oiled up.

The whole civilized world today is agreed that the Titanic established a record.

One place where the power of advertising fails is in getting a man to lick Jack Johnson.

Roosevelt hasn't admitted it but it is rumored nobody was as much surprised at the Pennsylvania primaries as he.

Why people move to Charleroi is a question that is much puzzling to Monessen folks. It's funny they don't know.

A busy man's idea of rest is to do only three-fourths as much work as he would when going at his usual breakneck speed.

They have barred Plymouth Rock chickens over at Monessen. However not from the borough, where they will stand for anything.

A noiseless aeroplane has been invented that cannot be heard 50 yards away. The trouble with that kind of a machine is that it would have to be equipped with a fog horn.

Ex-President Diaz of Mexico in a recent interview declared that he
"realized the iron hand alone would keep Mexico prosperous and peaceful." The Mexican people, however, decided that his wasn't the particular iron hand they needed.

The Friday Evening Call has a cute little essay on signs of spring, saying that most people know the approach of spring other than by the appearance in spring attire of such things as the "pussy willow" and the
"sweet william." As a matter of fact most people didn't know until that sweet effusion broke forth that spring was announced at all by them.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

The announcement that the Charleroi Progressive Co-operative Association, better known as the Co-operative Store, at 620 Fallowfield avenue, will celebrate its tenth anniversary on Monday, April 22, serves to call attention to one of the most successful instances of co-operative business ever achieved in this country.
Founded upon the old Rochdale plan of co-operative buying and selling that was developed in England and Scotland many years ago, and which has reached gigantic proportions, the Charleroi Progressive Co-operative Association has had a remarkable career of steady advancement. It was organized by a handful of working people in 1902 with a capital of $400 and a membership of 25. In that year the monthly receipts barely amounted to $1,000. Now with a membership of 564 the receipts average over $1,000 a week.

The Rochdale Store plan is a simple method of the co-operative buying and selling of merchandise. It has been worked out on a scientific basis of accuracy to such an extent that an observance of the regulations puts the system on a basis as safe as the banking system of either State or Nation. As it is practically impossible for a National or State bank to fail if the directors obey the law, it is also equally impossible for a business conducted on the Rochdale plan to go wrong if the regulations and laws are fully observed. It may not be generally known that Pennsylvania has laws governing co-operative associations, which outlines a specific system of procedure and provide how the business shall be conducted in regard to the division of profits and the safe-guarding of stock holders. Thus it will be seen that the plan of co-operation is as carefully safe-guarded by law as the

operation of a bank.

The Charleroi Progressive Co-operative Association conducts a store business on a capital stock composed of shares taken by the members. As soon as these shares are paid up six per cent interest is paid to the holders quarterly. In addition members receive a dividend of four per cent on all the groceries and ten per cent on all the dry goods and shoes purchased.
This dividend is also paid quarterly.
To become a member one must pay a fee of $1 and make application, and his application is voted upon by the board of directors. If approved each member must take $25 in shares, $5 in permanent stock and $20 in ordinary stock. The first cannot draw interest until it is all paid up. The stock can either be paid for in cash, or it can be paid for by the dividends on the purchases of the members, so that a member need not pay a cent in cash into the association in order to pay for his stock. The advantage of paying for stock in cash is that the member begins to receive interests at once on his stock. The permanent stock, however, must be paid up within a year.

The association has also a beneficiary feature, which is called the Rochdale Sick and Death Fund. Ten per cent of the net profits of the business are set aside for this fund, and under certain provisions members are paid sick and death benefits, and are given free physicians' service up to a certain amount. To be eligible to receive these benefits members must have belonged one year; to have bought a minimum of $100 worth of goods from the association a year for each and every separate year of membership and to have the amount of permanent and ordinary stock paid up. Sick benefits are paid in goods only, at the rate of half of the weekly average of the purchases of the member. The death benefit is cash which is $10 plus one per cent of the entire purchases of the member, since his admission. Free physician's services to the extent of $25 a year is also allowed each member eligible to the benefits of the Rochdale Sick and Death Fund. As these benefits are dependent upon the business of the association, the same as that of an insurance company, it will be seen that the provisions can be readily carried out.

The Association also has a Realty company, which purchased the lot
and erected the handsome new store building at 620 Fallowfield avenue three years ago. While this company operates under a separate charter, it is under the jurisdiction of the parent association, and cannot be separated from control of the members in any way. The accounts are audited quarterly and statements furnished the members of the business of the association. The gross business of the last quarter amounted to $14,- 558.74, which shows an annual business of nearly $60,000. The association is constantly extending its sphere of action, and is widening the benefits of its members. On the 27th of this month the association will open a branch store in Monessen with a membership of 91, which is considered a good field for operation.

The officers of the Charleroi Progressive Co-operative Association are:
President, John Leyda; vice president, Emile Manandise; secretary and manager, August Mahieu; directors, Louis Gaoziou, David V.
Smith, Thos. Rosbottom, Frank Lohst, Samuel Pardoe, A. Wildman and Fred Estenfelder. Nothing succeeds like success, and that this association is a success is a most convincing self-evident fact. John Marron, Esq., of Pittsburg in his address at the Charleroi Business Men's Association
last week mentioned the fact that one of the indications that Charleroi was composed of progressive people was the fact that it had some successful co-operative associations within its midst.

YOUNG WIFE SAVED FROM HOSPITAL

Tells How Sick She Was And
What Saved Her From
An Operation.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio.—"Three years ago I was married and went to housekeeping. I was not feeling well and
could hardly drag myself along. I had such tired feelings,
my back ached, my sides ached, I had bladder trouble awfully bad, and I could not eat or sleep. I had headaches, too, and became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so, when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice, and have done as you told me. I have taken Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and now I have my health.
"If sick and ailing women would only know enough to take your medicine, they would get relief."—Mrs. BESSIE H. STAN-LEY, Route 6, Box 18, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.
If you have mysterious pains, irregularity, backache, extreme nervousness, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait too long, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound now.
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy and should give every one confidence.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS

DO YOU know of anyone
who is old enough to read, who has not seen and sign at a railroad crossing?
If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to bury these signs at every crossing?
Maybe you think Mr. Merchants,
"Most everybody knows my store, I don't have to advertise."
Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need do to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars."
Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.
The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business.
If it pays to run a few ads toward about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

It's just business, that's all, so

Among the Theatres

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI

Two great social problem dramas in photoplays—one in the city slums and the other in the lawless open life of the west—were presented at the Palace Theatre this week. One was entitled "The Reformation of Kid Hogan," and the other was "Broncho Bill and the Girl." In the one a Salvation Army lassie works a transformation in the character of a Bowery tough, while in the other a modest, home-loving girl transforms an outlaw of the plains into a respected citizen. Both told a charming story of the power of love and moral suasion. A great Civil War motion picture, "The Tide of Battle," showed some heroic deeds performed by a girl—a Daughter of the South—for the Lost Cause. Other great dramas were "The Unknown Violinist" and the "Sins of His Father." These were also strong in human interest. In addition to these features were the usual Weekly Pathe Bulletin and a wide repertoire of films in which comedy was as strongly pictured as the human interest dramas. Donald J. Garrison also had a repertoire of songs that were especially pleasing.

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI

Among the strong features at the Coyle Theatre this week were "On Probation" and "The Girl of the Grove." The first told a sordid story of the greed of wealth which totally displaces the trait of human sympathy, the greatest of all humane attributes. "The Girl of the Grove" was a story of the cruel neglect of a husband of his invalid wife, and his attempt to deceive a trusting and confiding young girl, who happily discovered the man's perfidy in time to prevent his wife from committing suicide and to expose his villainy "A Tangled Courtesan," was a laughable mix-up in which two couples got in wrong with each other for the time being, but the affair is happily straightened out. Among the other notable films were "A Dual Personality" and the "Chef's Downfall," the latter of which portrayed a rare bit of humor. In addition to a wide range of motion picture plays in which intense heart interest drama, comedy and travel were shown, was the Current Weekly film, which gives a pictorial review of the leading events over all the world. The Coyle gives matinees every day as well as night shows, a feature that is greatly appreciated by the public.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI

"Divorce Cure" was a great feature at the Star Theatre this week, in which this evil of society was strikingly arraigned. Another feature photoplay was the great $25,000 French detective story, "Zigomar," by its mystery and charm created a vivid interest on the part of the audiences who witnessed it. Another photoplay with a deep heart interest was "A Western Girl's Love." The Star, with its daily matinees in connection with its night shows, continues to draw capacity houses to the extent that Manager Tom Cowan reports last week to be the banner week of the Star since he assumed the management of the house.

"BLIND LOVE" AT THE ALVIN

One of the most interesting events to take place in Pittsburgh will occur on Tuesday afternoon, April 23, at the Alvin Theatre, when the famous Thomashefsky's People Theatre, which comes direct from New York City will present for the first time in Pittsburgh their latest and greatest success direct from New York City, "Blind Love" by Z. Libin. This company is headed by one of the foremost stars of the Yiddish stage, M. Bores Thomashefsky and is supported by the original cast of the play which has enjoyed a prosperous season of twenty consecutive weeks at the Peoples Theatre, New York City.

THE NIXON-PITTSBURG

Followers of the theatre know Mr. George M. Cohan as one of the most popular and prolific authors the American stage has claimed in a decade. They also know that a production bearing his signature is worthy of their sincere consideration, and it is young Mr. Cohan's ambition to continue to possess that evidence of public favor, that loyalty of the masses that makes his recurring plays dominate the season in which they are produced.

Another ambition, also realized, was to play the role of "Kid Burns, the Bowery Boy in his mimic play "45 Minutes From Broadway." When Mr. Cohan first conceived the part he intended to play it himself. Just at that time he was making a big success in the title role of "Little Johnny Jones" so another player was engaged for it. Kid Burns is essentially a Cohan role and every actor who ever played it was coached and drilled until he had caught at least a little of the Cohan mannerisms, but his personality did not, and likely never will lend itself to another. Mr. Cohan's Kid Burns comes nearer, it is said, to a stage realization of the genuine Bowery type than has heretofore been visualized.

"45 Minutes From Broadway" with the original company, including Geo. M. Cohan, himself, will come to the Nixon Theatre for one week commencing Monday evening, April 22. The company numbers over 50 players not including the orchestra from the Geo. M. Cohan theatre, which will be in evidence and which, augmented with the regular musicians of the theatre will be able to give a fine interpretation of those fascinating compositions, "So Long Mary," "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," "Mary is a Grand Old Name" and the several other famous numbers in this famous musical play.

THE GRAND-PITTSBURG

Looking over the bill of high class vaudeville which Harry Davis promises to present in the Grand during the forthcoming week, one fails to find even the slightest suggestion of mediocrity. Its features include the presentation by Joseph Hart's players of "A Night in a Turkish Bath," a comedy and sentimental episode dealing with incidents in one of the best known establishments of its kind in the metropolis. Here are gathered a group of five men from various walks of life—men who are recuperating from too much of the "night before." The company, which is composed of well-known actors, includes the popular singing comedian, Robert J. Webb, who will enliven the fleeting minutes in the cooling room with lyric gems.

The Empire Comedy Four, who have just returned from their fifth successful tour abroad, where they played in St. Petersburg, Vienna, Budapest, Berlin, Amsterdam and London, will make merry with songs, pantomime and jests. They are the oldest quartet on the vaudeville stage and withal the most popular. George Spink, the accomplished composer and pianist who has been identified with some of Lasky's largest productions and is the author of "Bill Simmons" and other comic ditties, has formed an alliance with Miss Pauline Welch and together they will appear in a medley of songs and piano-playing.

Great Howard, the famous Scotch ventriloquist whose comical patter with his little figures is one of the most delightful of vaudeville diversions, returns next week for his annual engagement at the Grand. A decided novelty is offered by Jesse L. Lasky in the first appearance in Pittsburgh of Fleurette, who offers what has been very appropriately called "Visions D'Art." This is a Parisian importation and shows Fleurette, a beautiful young woman, in classic poses—poses which are distinctly different from the stereotyped living picture idea.

America's foremost athletes, Geo. E. Delmo and Jules W. Lee, will be seen in their original novelty called "A Study in Black and White." The Stanleys offer a specialty called "In Shadowland." It is a skillfully arranged exhibition of silhouettes. Morris and Kramer offer another exceptional attraction, and there will be still others in addition to moving pictures of the most interesting variety.

THE ALVIN-PITTSBURG

This is the work designed for the opening next season of Mr. Brady's new Forty Eighth Street Theatre, now approaching completion a few doors West of the playhouse. It will be played moreover in this engagement by the same company that has been assembled for next fall in New York. The organization embraces Walter Jones, who has played the perturbed Jimmy in "Baby Mine" for the past two years with such inimitable drolery; Rapsley Holmes, the Sheriff of "The Roundup"; Herbert Yost, the funny kissing bridegroom of "Over Night"; Wallace Worsley, the stalwart leading man of the same company, and Florine Arnold, who made one of the greatest artistic hits of recent times in Mrs. Fiske's presentation of "Mrs. Bumpstead Leigh."

"John," as played by Walter Jones, is a United States Secret Service man, assigned to break up a group of anarchists, and in pursuance of this laudable purpose he ingratiates himself with the fierce leading spirits of political chaos. Among these is a woman who thinks it her heaven-born duty to maim, murder or otherwise obliterate kings, potentates and other representatives of law and order—but in other respects she is as tender-hearted and sentimental as a school-girl. This latter state is discovered by "John" to his dismay as well as to the disruption of his domestic happiness and from the complication thus indicated the ludicrous incidents of the story arise.

A Nautical Christening.

Some years ago a slow sailing vessel, when some 600 miles from Liverpool, picked up a lusty youngster of five years lashed to a mast.

The captain took a great liking to him, called him his son and decided that the little chap must be christened—one of the few things which he knew must be attended to in the case of children.

Of course there was no chaplain aboard, so the captain himself undertook the ceremony. He gathered the men about him, and with a mixed knowledge of his duties, he glared about him and asked whether any one knew just cause why the boy should not be christened.

"If there is," he roared, "speak up like a man or forever hold your tongue."

Then he suddenly cracked a bottle of wine over his head and christened him.

The ocean wall is now settled down—a steady longshoreman, but he still relates with satisfaction the story of his christening.

Rise in Russian Lakes.

During the last 20 years the lakes of Russian Central Asia have shown a steady rise of waterlevel. Within this period, or since 1885, the Sea of Aral has risen about six and a half feet. The phenomenon has accompanied a period of augmentation of rainfall.

Question of Disposition.

Disappointed Patron—Gentle disposition! Why, he wants to bite the head off every dog he meets. I've been swindled! Dog Merchant—"You didn't ought to keep dogs at all, mister. The animals you ought to keep wiv your temperament is silk-worms."—Punch.

Philippine Advancement.

Efforts of the Philippine Railway company in Cebu and Panay are being made to promote agriculture along its lines. At every station there is an exhibit of the products and instructions are published for the best methods of agriculture. The shops of the company at Cebu are extensive and of a high order. The machinery is all modern.

ROOSEVELT PRAISED TAFT.

Former President Lauded Successor Before New York Republicans.

One of the most comprehensive endorsements that the Taft administration has ever received was contained in the speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt as temporary chairman of the New York Republican state convention at Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1910. The first two paragraphs of the speech were as follows:

"We come here feeling that we have the right to appeal to the people from the standpoint alike of national and state achievement. During the last eighteen months a long list of laws embodying legislation most heartily to be commended as combining wisdom with progress have been enacted by congress and approved by President Taft."

"The amendments to the interstate commerce law, beginning of a national legislative program for the exercise of the taxing power in connection with big corporations doing an interstate business, the appointment of a commission to frame measures that do away with the evils of overcapitalization and of improper and excessive issues of stocks and bonds, the law providing for publicity of campaign expenses, the establishment of the maximum and minimum tariff provisions and the exceedingly able negotiation of the Canadian and other treaties in accordance therewith, the inauguration of the policy of providing for a disinterested revision of tariff schedules through a high class commission of experts which will treat each schedule purely on its own merits with a view to protecting the consumer from excessive prices and to securing the American producer and especially the American wage worker what will represent the difference of cost in production here as compared with the cost of production in countries where labor is less liberally rewarded, the extension of the laws regulating safety appliances for the protection of labor and the creation of a bureau of mines. These and similar laws, backed up by executive action, reflect high credit upon all who succeeded in putting them in their present shape upon the statute books. They represent an earnest of the achievement which is yet to come, and the beneficence and far-reaching importance of this work done for the whole people measure the credit which is rightly due to the congress and to our able, upright and distinguished president, William Howard Taft."

The news from Paris is that tailors and surah coats and skirts laid everything else. They have taken the place of linen, of serge and of foulard. The only trimming beyond a few cord loops and braid buttons is a pointed collar on the coat made of the kind of linen used for men's dress shirts. By the way, this linen is in high fashion now, and is made into plain blouses with Irish lace collars for autumn wear.

IS DEAN OF ALL INDIANS

Sitting Elk, Mighty Warrior Who Never Killed White Man, Is Old-set Redman.

Oldest of all Indians in the United States, Sitting Elk, former chief of the Ogallala Sioux, is visiting in Denver, the guest of the white man, against whom he always refused to make war.

For almost a century he has been a leader among his people, but, wiser than other chiefs, he early realized that the red man was doomed and at every opportunity he counseled peace with the palefaces.

He could not afford to do so, for his people knew he was no coward. "I have never killed a white man," he proudly boasts, "but I have fought many battles, and I have done many brave deeds in my long life of ninety-six years. I was but seventeen when I waylaid and killed my first enemy. That was a very brave deed. Since then I have killed many, many enemies."

Sitting Elk is a total abstainer. He smokes cigarettes, but insists he has none of the other bad habits of the white man. He is childless, the last of his line, but he expects to live for many years more—to be hale and hearty long after he has passed the century mark.

Sitting Elk moves tall and stately among his kinsmen, and puffs his pipe with a complacency untroubled by thoughts of any immediate journey to the happy hunting ground. Bright of eye, keen of mind, the old warrior dons paint and feathers for his appearance, with the younger members of his tribe in the headlong dashes across the amphitheater at the sport yards, and rides with an abandon which defies the spectators to strike him from the reckless recklessness who have but one-fourth his years to their credit.

NEW LABOR BILL A TAFT POLICY

Liberty and Compensation Measure Progressive.

JUSTICE IS ITS OBJECT.

President Approves Proposed Legislation Making Federal Labor Laws Fit Modern Conditions—Legal Machinery Simplified.

As the result of the personal interest of President Taft in all matters affecting the workmen of the country, congress has before it today a comprehensive bill on employers' liability and workmen's compensation which is recognized as one of the most progressive of the many achievements of the Taft administration. The bill was reported by a commission appointed by President Taft pursuant to a joint resolution of congress passed on June 23, 1910, and it was recently sent to congress by the president, accompanied with a message recommending its passage. As drafted the measure provides an exclusive remedy and compensation for accidental injuries resulting in disabilities or death to employees of common carriers engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or in the District of Columbia.

This comprehensive legislation is the direct outcome of the general unsatisfactoriness of labor legislation passed by congress in recent years and is illustrative of the Taft method of reaching an admitted evil by a painstaking investigation followed by carefully considered laws. As is well known, the first employers' liability law passed in the last administration was declared unconstitutional by the courts. A new law to take its place was passed under this administration, but it was generally understood at the time that the comprehensive measure now before congress was to follow, both as to liability and compensation, as soon as the necessary investigation into the subject could be made. The result is that the workmen of the United States, so far as they can be reached by federal law, will soon be working under one of the most enlightened labor laws on record.

Provision is made in the bill, as drafted tentatively, that every common carrier engaged in interstate or foreign commerce shall pay compensations in the amounts specified in the bill to any of its employees who sustains personal injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment and resulting in his disability or to his dependents in case of death.

It is provided in the bill that the injured employee shall have medical attendance and surgical aid when necessary, the last mentioned being limited to $200. The monthly wages of an employee are deemed to be twenty-six times the established day's pay, and $50 is the minimum monthly wage payment. It is also provided that all compensation shall be paid monthly unless computed to a lump sum.

Death benefits are provided for at a specific percentage of the man's wages to be paid to the widow with an increase in the amount when there are dependent children, and in case of no dependents the payment of the burial expenses is required. The matter of personal injury compensation is also covered in a fair and equitable provision.

Another feature of the proposed act is a clear definition of the term "dependent" as well as of what constitutes an "injury" and an "employee." Legal complications are provided for reports of accidents, payments and operations under the law to the interstate commerce commission are required, and it is declared that the proposed act shall take effect on July 1, 1912, and cited as "the federal compensation act of 1912."

In its investigations of this subject the commission determined at the outset that in substance the doctrines of the common law originating under comparatively simple conditions were unjust as applied to the complex relations of master and servant. The use of complicated machinery, steam and electricity had had the effect of increasing the deplorable antagonism between employer and employee and often giving a few injured employees large and frequently extravagant damages, while the great majority have been left to bear the entire burden without any recompense whatever.

At the time of the adoption of the common law rules of liability industrial conditions were radically different from those of today. The number of employees was smaller because there were few big industrial plants. The business carried on was small in extent, the appliances used in the work consisted largely of hand tools, while the power was simple in character, with little danger to the employee. Under such conditions the rules of common law originated.

Today there is a vast difference. President Taft, in the message which transmitted the report of the commission to congress, aptly says, in speaking of the proposed bill, "that it is one of the great steps of progress toward a satisfactory solution of an important phase of the controversies between employers and employees that have been proposed within the last two or three decades. The old rules of liability under the common law were adapted to a different age and condition and were evidently drawn by men imbued with the importance of preserving the employers from burdensome or unjust liabilities. It was treated as a personal matter of each employee, and the employees were put on a level of dealing which, however it may have been in the past, certainly creates injustice to the employee under the present conditions.

The attention of congress to this great injustice of the present system was called by President Taft. He mentioned the fact that often the recovery of large sums in damage verdicts did not result in actual benefit to the injured person on account of the heavy expenses in litigation. The president expressed the belief that these burdens would disappear with the enactment of the proposed law, since the attorneys are limited to a reasonable amount.

As further stated by the president, "the great object of the proposed law is to secure justice to the weaker party under existing modern conditions." He also declared that he would use his influence, to aid in the enactment of the proposed law before the adjournment of the present session of congress.

GOVERNMENT BUILDINGTreasury Department

To be Two Stories High with Basement—Face of Stone.
—Must be Fireproof

Elsewhere in this issue of the Mail appears an advertisement from the Treasury Department at Washington, D. C. asking for bids for the construction of the Public Federal building to be constructed in Charleroi. As the time limit for receiving bids is given as May 31, it is believed that this year will witness actual work on the structure at the corner of Seventh street and Fallowfield avenue.

According to the supervising architect of the treasury, James Knox Taylor, the building will occupy approximately 4,156 square feet of ground area. The bids must be for the construction of the building complete, which will include plumbing, gas piping, heating apparatus, electric conduits and wiring and lighting fixtures.

The building is to be two stories in height and is to have a finished basement. It is to be stone-faced, and is to have a slate roof. According to the specifications the whole structure, with the exception of the roof will have to be fireproof.

Inasmuch as the government owns practically six lots at the corner of Seventh street and Fallowfield avenue, or a total of about 12,000 or 13,000 square feet, and the building is to occupy only 4,156 square feet ground area there will be a large space around the structure for lawn. The drawings and specifications may be obtained by contractors from the custodian of the site or at his office at the discretion of the supervising architect.

on Two Highways
in The County

IN CARROLL TOWNSHIP

Pursuant to the resolution passed by the county commissioners, John A. Berry, Thomas Hill and A. P. Barnum this week, Solicitor Isaac W. Baum Thursday presented two petitions to the court for the proposed improvement of two stretches of road in the county, and prayed that the same be laid before the next grand jury on May 13, 1912. The petitions contained a copy of the resolution of the commissioners stating that they believed it expedient that these sections be improved, with the description of the roads proposed to be improved and estimated cost. Both roads will connect up improved roads and are short stretches.

The one road desired to be improved, which the grand jury will be required to approve or disapprove, is the Pigeon Creek road leading from Monongahela southwardly to a big brick road constructed by Carroll township. The estimated cost of the road is $6,650.50, to which is ten per cent for incidentals, bringing the total estimated cost up to $7,315.55.

The other road is known as the West Alexander-Burnsville road and lies entirely in the borough of West Alexander. The estimated cost is $2,435, added to which is ten per cent for incidentals, making the total estimated cost $2,678.50.

Since the primary election one of the reforms advocated by Republicans is that of limiting the expenditure of political candidates. This measure meets with the general approval of adherents of the party of affiliation with either the Taft or the Roosevelt contingents. In the dissemination of information as permitted under the present law is a loophole for unlimited expenditures, and it is

SECOND RECEPTION
BRILLIANT EVENTStudents and Faculty of Charleroi High School Entertain at School Hall—Mock Commencement a Feature

Ninth street school building and School Hall presented a gay scene Friday evening on the occasion of the second annual reception of the Charleroi High School. Combining their efforts students and members of the faculty royally entertained the five hundred and some persons. It was a pleasing break in the monotony of school life. The spirit of the semi-annual well put in an old proverb "of making books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh" seemed to prevail.

The balcony and hall interior of the building was transformed into a bower of beauty. Red and black the Charleroi High School colors reigned supreme in the decorations. Attracting first attention, white streamers were hung over the first steps leading from the Fallowfield entrance. Catching the eye beyond, around the banister railing of the balcony were pennants of various descriptions, representing seemingly myriads of schools and colleges suspended against a background of white. Wrapped about the railing leading up the steps were ribbons of red and black. On the second floor were huge pennants and streamers, the red and black predominating. Classes of High School each had their pennants in class colors.

At the top of the first flight of stairs was the receiving line, consisting of the members of the faculty and two or three High School students. At the eastern end of the building on the second floor was the "refreshment counter." Presided over by a bevy of bewitching young women this proved a center of attraction. Delicious punch and lunch cakes were freely dispensed.

As the chief feature of the reception

Diploma was about the only decoration, however, a program was rendered.

The High School orchestra had a featuring part. Under direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel this party of young musicians did exceedingly creditable work in the rendition of several numbers. Dr. F. C. Stahlman of the board of education spoke briefly. He said the school board was particularly proud of the High School. "We are students too," he said speaking of the board members. He presented figures showing the value of a High School education. Misses May and Ethel Barth rendered brilliantly a piano duet. Miss Edith Crill, a High School student sang a solo with pleasing effect. Interspersing were two chorus songs which were sung under direction of Prof. Daniel.

The paylet, "Mock Commencement," a piece full of humor and rich in ludicrous situations was given. Eight persons received their diplomas. On the stage with them were seated the members of the mock faculty attired in a variety of fantastic costumes. The class motto, "Me for a tation on the stage. The program was as follows for this commencement.

Subscribers May Get Central

Without Having to First Whirl Crank

Previously at midnight tonight the new common battery system upon which the Bell Telephone company has been working for sometime, will be cut in. This means that tomorrow morning local subscribers to call central will not have to use their arms like piston rods turning a crank, but with the one performance of lifting the receiver off the hook will be enabled to summon the operator. Putting in the call is a matter-of-fact after performance with which everybody is familiar.

For the present the telephone boxes now in the offices and homes of the various subscribers will have to be used, but the company will remove them and install light new devices where there isn't a crank in sight as soon as possible. The one thing to remember tomorrow and hereafter until this is accomplished in calling trail is to not whirl the crank.

Another change has been made that will be welcomed by local subscribers. That is to get calls between Monongahela and Brownsville which includes the Charleroi district "long distance" does not have to be called. The purpose in doing away with this is to remove what to the average subscriber has seemed an added burden to him and an unnecessary bit of system.

OF THE TITANICManager R. S. Coyle Arrang s Photoplays to be Shown at Coyle Theatre

Manager R. S. Coyle, of the Coyle Theatre, telephoned the Mail from Pittsburg today that he has been successful in securing a moving picture film of the ill-fated ocean liner Titanic, which was wrecked Monday morning off the Newfoundland Banks with such terrific loss of life. This film will be exhibited Monday at the Coyle Theatre and it will be the second release since its arrival. It is being shown today in Pittsburg, and Monday it will come to Charleroi.

The film shows the Titanic at Southampton, just previous to her departure on her ill-fated voyage. Capt. Smith the gallant commander who went down with his ship, is shown as well as the three decks, which were a part of the luxurious appointments of the liner. The film of course does not show any details of the wreck. It is a good picture of the ill-fated liner, and while not so extensive in detail, gives a graphic impression of the principal in one of the greatest tragedies of the deep.

CO-OPERATION.

must sometimes be fought with his
own weapons, and the way for the
upon them is to go into the trust business themselves. This can be done
through the medium of co-operation.
That co-operative buying and selling
can be successfully carried out is
association, a general summary of
which is given in another column.
The Rochdale store plan which is
as safe as the banking system of the State.

This system of co-operation can be carried out in the conduct of a curb
sults without the expenditure of a single dollar for capital stock. All
that is necessary is for the people
to contribute patronage and effort.
A co-operation of this by all the peo-
the farmers are assured of this cooperation they will have an incentive
to make extra efforts to supply the
to help themselves.

MONEY MUST GO.

The movement to eliminate the excessive expenditure of money by
candidates for county and other public offices is one that meets the ap-
the conduct of clean elections. While
open to evade the restrictions the
law would impose. As conditions now
are, candidates seeking the nomina-
more money frequently than the office pays as salary.
That practically all of the present

that will be a factor in effecting the
necessary changes to correct the evils
possible under the present law. So long as the bars are down some can-
be followed by others in order to
stand an equal chance in the contest.
The result is that the contest of-
times is decided in favor of the candidate who has the longest purse.
This is a pernicious condition and the
will conditions be all around.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Most anybody can get votes if he
has the nerve to run.
It is about time they were getting
the steam roller oiled up.

record.

One place where the power of advertising fails is in getting a man to
lick Jack Johnson.

Roosevelt hasn't admitted it but it
is rumored nobody was as much surprised at the Pennsylvania primaries
as he.

question that is much puzzling to Monessen folks. It's funny they don't know.

A busy man's idea of rest is to do
only three-fourths as much work as
breakneck speed.

They have barred Plymouth Rock
chickens over at Monessen. However
not from the borough, where they
will stand for anything.

A noiseless aeroplane has been in-
away. The trouble with that kind of a machine is that it would have to be
equipped with a fog horn.

recent interview declared that he
keep Mexico prosperous and peaceful." The Mexican people, however,
decided that his wasn't the particular
iron hand they needed.

The Friday Evening Call has a cute
little essay on signs of spring, saying that most people know the ap-
things as the "pussy willow" and the
that sweet effusion broke forth that
spring was announced at all by them.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

The announcement that the Charle-
roi Progressive Co-operative Association, better known as the Co-operative Store, at 620 Fallowfield avenue,
will celebrate its tenth anniversary
on Monday, April 22, serves to call
attention to one of the most successful instances of co-operative business ever achieved in this country.
Founded upon the old Rochdale plan
that was developed in England and
has reached gigantic proportions, the Charleroi Progressive Co-operative
Association has had a remarkable
career of steady advancement. It
$400 and a membership of 25. In that year the monthly receipts barely
amounted to $1,000. Now with a membership of 564 the receipts average over $1,000 a week.

The Rochdale Store plan is a simple method of the co-operative
basis of accuracy to such an extent
puts the system on a basis as safe as
the banking system of either State
or Nation. As it is practically impossible for a National or State bank
to fail if the directors obey the law,
it is also equally impossible for a business conducted on the Rochdale
plan to go wrong if the regulations
and laws are fully observed. It may not be generally known that Pennsylvania has laws governing co-operative associations, which outlines a specific system of procedure and provide how the business shall be con-
profits and the safe-guarding of

operation of a bank.

The Charleroi Progressive Co-opera-
of shares taken by the members. As
quarterly. In addition members re-
all the dry goods and shoes purchased.
This dividend is also paid quarterly.
To become a member one must pay a
his application is voted upon by the
in permanent stock and $20 in ordinary stock. The first cannot draw interest until it is all paid up. The
stock can either be paid for in cash,
or it can be paid for by the dividends
on the purchases of the members, so
that a member need not pay a cent
in cash into the association in order
member begins to receive interests at
in a year.

The association has also a beneficiary feature, which is called the
per cent of the net profits of the
business are set aside for this fund,
and under certain provisions members are paid sick and death benefits,
and are given free physicians' service
up to a certain amount. To be eligible to receive these benefits members
must have belonged one year; to have
goods from the association a year for
each and every separate year of mem-
permanent and ordinary stock paid
up. Sick benefits are paid in goods
average of the purchases of the member. The death benefit is cash which
is $10 plus one per cent of the entire purchases of the member, since
his admission. Free physician's services to the extent of $25 a year is
also allowed each member eligible to
the benefits of the Rochdale Sick and
association, the same as that of an
insurance company, it will be seen
that the provisions can be readily
carried out.

The Association also has a Realty
and erected the handsome new store
building at 620 Fallowfield avenue
three years ago. While this company operates under a separate charter, it is under the jurisdiction of the parent association, and cannot be sepa-
the members of the business of the association. The gross business of the last quarter amounted to $14-558.74, which shows an annual business of nearly $60,000. The association is constantly extending its sphere
of action, and is widening the ben-
a branch store in Monessen with a membership of 91, which is considered a good field for operation.

The officers of the Charleroi Progressive Co-operative Association are:
President, John Leyda; vice president, Emile Menandis; secretary and manager, August Mahieu; directors, Louis Gozzen, David V.
Smith, Thos Rosbottom, Frank Lovest, Samuel Pardoe, A. Wildman and Fred Esterfelder. Nothing succeeds
like success, and that this association
is a success is a most convincing self-
evident fact. John Marron, Esq., of Pittsburg in his address at the
last week mentioned the fact that
one of the indications that Charle-
roi was composed of progressive people was the fact that it had some successful co-operative associations within its midst.

YOUNG WIFE SAVED FROM HOSPITAL

Tells How Sick She Was And
What Saved Her From
An Operation.

ago I was married and went to housekeeping. I was not
feeling well and
could hardly drag
myself along. I had such tired feelings,
my back ached, my
sides ached, I had
bladder trouble aw-
fully bad, and I could not eat or sleep. I had
headaches, too, and
became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so, when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice, and have done as you told me. I have taken Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and
Liver Pills, and now I have my health.
"If sick and ailing women would only
would get relief." — Mrs. BENJ. H. STANS-

If you have mysterious pains, irregularity, backache, extreme nervousness, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait too long, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound now.
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots
and herbs, has been the standard remedy
for female ills, and such unquestionable
of this famous remedy and should give
every one confidence.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS

who is old enough to read, who has not seen the sign at a railroad crossing?

If everyone has seen it at some
the railroad let the sign rot
away? Why does the railroad sweepy continue to keep those signs at every crossing?

Maybe you think Mr. Merchants
"Most everybody knows my
store, I don't have to advertise."

more advertising than the railroads need to do to warn people
to "Look Out for the Cars."
Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.

The Department Stores are a very good example—they are
they are continually doing a good business.

If it pays to run a few ads now
about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI

Two great social problem dramas in photoplays—one in the city slums and the other in the lawless open life of the west—were presented at the Palace Theatre this week. One was entitled "The Reformation of Kid Hogan," and the other was "Broncho Bill and the Girl." In the one a Salvation Army lassie works a transformation in the character of a Bowery tough, while in the other a modest, home loving girl transforms an outlaw of the plains into a respected citizen. Both told a charming story of the power of love and moral suasion. A great Civil War motion picture, "The Tide of Battle," showed some heroic deeds performed by a girl—a daughter of the South—for the Lost Cause. Other great dramas were "The Unknown Violinist" and "Sins of His Father." These were also strong in human interest. In addition to these features were the usual Weekly Pathé Bulletin and a wide repertoire of films in which comedy was as strongly pictured as the human interest dramas. Donald J. Garrison also had a repertoire of songs that were especially pleasing.

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI

"Among the strong features at the Coyle Theatre this week were "On Probation" and "The Girl of the Grove." The first told a sordid story of the greed of wealth which totally displaces the trait of human sympathy, the greatest of all humane attributes. "The Girl of the Grove" was a story of the cruel neglect of a husband of his invalid wife, and his attempt to deceive a trusting and confiding young girl, who happily discovered the man's perfidy in time to prevent his wife from committing suicide and to expose his villainy. "A Tangled Courtesier," was a laughable mix-up in which two couples get in wrong with each other for the time being, but the affair is happily straightened out. Among the other notable films were "A Dual Personality" and the "Chef's Downfall," the latter of which portrayed a rare bit of humor. In addition to a wide range of motion picture plays in which intense heart interest drama, comedy and travel were shown, was the Current Weekly film, which gives a pictorial review of the leading events over all the world. The Coyle gives matinees every day as well as night shows, a feature that is greatly appreciated by the public.

"Divorce Cure" was a great feature at the Star Theatre this week, in which this evil of society was strikingly arraigned. Another feature photoplay was the great $25,000 French detective story, "Zigomar," by its mystery and charm created a vivid interest on the part of the audiences who witnessed it. Another photoplay with a deep heart interest was "A Western Girl's Love." The Star, with its daily matinees in connection with its night shows, continues to draw capacity houses to the extent that Manager Tom Cowan reports last week to be the banner week of the Star since he assumed the management of the house.

One of the most interesting events to take place in Pittsburgh will occur on Tuesday afternoon, April 23, at the Alvin Theatre, when the famous Thomashefsky's People Theatre, which comes direct from New York City will present for the first time in Pittsburgh their latest and greatest success direct from New York City, "Blind Love" by Z. Libin. This company is headed by one of the foremost stars of the Yiddish stage, M. Borek Thomashefsky and is supported by the original cast of the play which has enjoyed a prosperous season of twenty consecutive weeks at the Peoples Theatre, New York City.

THE NIXON-PITTSBURG

Follower of the theatre know Mr. George M. Cohan as one of the most popular and prolific authors the American stage has claimed in a decade. They also know that a production bearing his signature is worthy of their sincere consideration, and it is young Mr. Cohan's ambition to continue to possess that evidence of public favor, that loyalty of the masses that makes his recurring plays dominate the season in which they are produced.

Another ambition, also realized, was to play the role of "Kid Burns," the Bowery Boy in his comic play "45 Minutes From Broadway." When Mr. Cohan first conceived the part he intended to play it himself. Just at that time he was making a big success in the title role of "Little Johnny Jones" so another player was engaged for it. Kid Burns is essentially a Cohan role and every actor who ever played it was coached and drilled until he had caught at least a little of the Cohan mannerisms, but his personality did not, and likely never will lend itself to another. Mr. Cohan's Kid Burns comes nearer, it is said, to a stage realization of the genuine Bowery type than has heretofore been visualized.

"45 Minutes From Broadway" with the original company, including Geo. M. Cohan, himself, will come to the Nixon Theatre for one week commencing Monday evening, April 22. The company numbers over 50 players not including the orchestra from the Geo. M. Cohan theatre, which will be in evidence and which, augmented with the regular musicians of the theatre will be able to give a fine interpretation of those fascinating compositions, "So Long Mary," "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," "Mary is a Grand Old Name" and the several other famous numbers in this famous musical play.

THE GRAND-PITTSBURG

Looking over the bill of high class vaudeville which Harry Davis promises to present in the Grand during the forthcoming week, one fails to find even the slightest suggestion of mediocrity. Its features include the presentation by Joseph Hart's players of "A Night in a Turkish Bath," a comedy and sentimental episode dealing with incidents in one of the best known establishments of its kind in the metropolis. Here are gathered a group of five men from various walks of life—men who are recuperating from too much of the "night before." The company, which is composed of well-known actors, includes the popular singing comedian, Robert J. Webb, who will enliven the fleeting minutes in the cooling room with lyric gems.

The Empire Comedy Troupe, who have just returned from their fifth successful tour abroad, where they played in St. Petersburg, Vienna, Budapest, Berlin, Amsterdam and London, will

Great Howard, the famous Scotch ventriloquist whose comical patter with his little figures is one of the most delightful of vaudeville diversions, returns next week for his annual engagement at the Grand. A decided novelty is offered by Jesse L. Lasky in the first appearance in Pittsburgh of Fleurette, who offers what has been very appropriately called "Visions D'Art." This is a Parisian importation and shows Fleurette, a beautiful young woman, in classic poses—poses which are distinctly different from the stereotyped living picture idea.

America's foremost athletes, Geo. E. Delmo and Jules W. Lee, will be seen in their original novelty called "A Study in Black and White." The Stanleys offer a specialty called "In Shadowland." It is a skillfully arranged exhibition of silhouettes. Morris and Kramer offer another exceptional attraction, and there will be still others in addition to moving pictures of the most interesting variety.

THE ALVIN-PITTSBURG

This is the work designed for the opening next season of Mr. Brady's new Forty Eighth Street Theatre, now approaching completion a few doors West of the playhouse. It will be played moreover in this engagement by the same company that has been assembled for next fall in New York. The organization embraces Walter Jones, who has played the perturbed Jimmy in "Baby Mine" for the past two years with such inimitable drollery; Rapley Holmes, the Sheriff of "The Roundup"; Herbert Yost, the funny lipping bridegroom of "Over Night"; Wallace Worsley, the stalwart leading man of the same company, and Florine Arnold, who made one of the greatest artistic hits of recent times in Mgs. Fiske's presentation of "Mrs. Bumpstead Leigh."

"John," as played by Walter Jones, is a United States Secret Service man, assigned to break up a group of anarchists, and in pursuance of this laudable purpose he ingratiates himself with the fierce leading spirits of political chaos. Among these is a woman who thinks it her heaven-born duty to maim, murder or otherwise obliterate kings, potentates and other representatives of law and order—but in other respects she is as tender-hearted and sentimental as a school-girl. This latter state is discovered by "John" to his dismay as well as to the disruption of his domestic happiness and from the complication thus indicated the ludicrous incidents of the story arise.

A Nautical Christening.

The captain took a great liking to him, called him his son and decided that the little chap must be christened—one of the few things which he knew must be attended to in the case of children.

Of course there was no chaplain aboard, so the captain himself undertook the ceremony. He gathered the men about him, and with a mixed knowledge of his duties, he glared about him and asked whether any one knew just cause why the boy should not be christened.

"If there is," he roared, "speak up like a man or forever hold your tongue."

Then he suddenly cracked a bottle of wine over his head and christened him.

The ocean wall is now settled down—a steady longshoreman, but he still relates with satisfaction the story of his christening.

Rise in Russian Lakes.

ROOSEVELT PRAISED TAFT.

Former President Lauded Successor

Before New York Republicans. One of the most comprehensive endorsements that the Taft administration has ever received was contained in the speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt as temporary chairman of the New York Republican state convention at Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1910. The first two paragraphs of the speech were as follows:

"We come here feeling that we have the right to appeal to the people from the standpoint alike of national and state achievement. During the last eighteen months a long list of laws embodying legislation most heartily to be commended as combining wisdom with progress have been enacted by congress and approved by President Taft."

"The amendments to the interstate commerce law, beginning of a national legislative program for the exercise of the taxing power in connection with big corporations doing an interstate business, the appointment of a commission to frame measures that do away with the evils of overcapitalization and of improper and excessive issues of stocks and bonds, the law providing for publicity of campaign expenses, the establishment of the maximum and minimum tariff provisions and the exceedingly able negotiation of the Canadian and other treaties in accordance therewith, the inauguration of the policy of providing for a disinterested revision of tariff schedules through a high class commission of experts which will treat each schedule purely on its own merits with a view to protecting the consumer from excessive prices and to securing the American producer and especially the American wage worker what will represent the difference of cost in production here as compared with the cost of production in countries where labor is less liberally rewarded, the extension of the laws regulating safety appliances for the protection of labor and the creation of a bureau of mines. These and similar laws, backed up by executive action, reflect high credit upon all who succeeded in putting them in their present shape upon the statute books. They represent an earnest of the achievement which is yet to come, and the beneficence and far-reaching importance of this work done for the whole people measure the credit which is rightly due to the congress and to our able, upright and distinguished president, William Howard Taft."

It is sure that if the Senate committee makes any public report of the Titanic disaster, it won't as in the investigation of the cost of living give nameless verdict by simply saying, "it happened because it happened."
